

DO YOU WANT TO BE STRONG?

To feel as vigorous as you were before you wasted your strength? To enjoy life again? To get up in the morning refreshed by sleep and not more tired than when you went to bed? To have no weakness in the back or "come and go" pains? No indigestion or constipation? To know that your strength is not slipping away? To once more have bright eyes, healthy color in your cheeks and be confident that what other men can do is not impossible to you? In short, do you want to be a man among men?

Dr. McLaughlin's Electric Belt.

There is nothing so penetrating, nothing so invigorating, nothing that will relieve weakness and pain as speedily and surely as Dr. McLaughlin's Electric Belt. It is simple, but grand. It assists nature by a general reinforcement of the vital energy by infusing a mild, invigorating current of Electricity into the nerves and by supplying the system with the very essence of nerve vigor and nerve strength.

Lame Back and Vital Weakness.

DR. McLAUGHLIN—Dear Sir: Your electric belt has done for me all you have claimed it would, and has improved me to such an extent that I am now able to do a hard day's work, something I was incapable of before commencing your treatment. I rest well at night and my general health is better than ever. You can refer to me, and it will give me great pleasure to speak of the merits of your treatment. Very truly, E. R. HOUSTON, Armona, Cal.

SCOTLAND DEFEATED

Exciting Football on Makiki Field.

ALL HONOLULU A BIG SURPRISE

For the First Time on Record the Colors of Hoot Mons Are Lowered.

A most interesting and exciting game of association football was witnessed at Makiki yesterday forenoon, when an all Honolulu team succeeded in defeating by a score of three goals to two the picked eleven of the Scottish Amateur Athletic Association, who were chosen from the best Scotch players, to defend their country's football honor in Hawaii.

A victory for Scotland was generally looked for, by the Scotchmen, at least, and the thistle representatives stepped on to the field full of confidence, while by special arrangement, Piper Murray cheered them on with the martial strains of "The Cock of the North."

Morse kicked off for Honolulu, and the ball hovered about midfield until Kay passed nicely out to McWhirter, who carried the ball up the wing and with a splendid shot put Scotland one goal up. The Scotchmen accepted the point as a matter of course, but hardly had the game been restarted when R. Anderson made a mis-kick which Morse immediately took advantage of. "Like adder daring from the coil," he pounced upon the ball, and with only Cockburn to beat, he scored easily and placed his team on level terms. Ducking to the Scots pressed hard, and Duisenberg was several times called upon to defend his charge, which he did effectively, and half time was called without further scoring.

The change of goals gave Scotland the benefit of the stiff breeze blowing down field, and play was mostly at the Honolulu end. Honolulu broke away at last and Parish scored. Excitement now began to rise, and the game got fast and furious. Anxious to increase their lead, the Honolulu adopted kick and rush tactics. Blackman putted well up field to Morse, who outstripped Anderson and McGill and scored with a shot which Cockburn might have saved.

Morse was using his speed to great advantage, and appeared in the best of fettle. Nothing daunted, but with a "dove" look on their faces, the Scots set to work to reduce the odds against them. Soper and Beardmore defended splendidly, however, and for a time Scotland could find no openings. Neither Boyle nor Goudie were in their best form, and did not justify the great things expected of them. McWhirter was playing a fine game on the right wing, and ultimately scored again for Scotland.

Another goal would divert defeat, and with cries of "Scotland yet!" the spectators urged their favorite players to mighty deeds. Fiddes responded to the call with a rocket shot which made the crowd hold its breath as the leather struck the crossbar just an inch too high to find its mark. Try as they would, they could not find the spot. Boyle shot past and Kay shot over. The ball went everywhere but through the goal. Beardmore was doing a power of work at back, and proving himself one of the best players there in that position. Scotland looked good for a draw on the closing play, but by dint of steady kicking by the backs, Honolulu kept their lines clear, and when the whistle blew they still led by three goals to two, and the Scotchmen were defeated at last.

The teams were:
Scotland—Goal, Cockburn; backs, R. Anderson and McGill; halfbacks, Guild, Craik and Brown; forwards, McWhirter, Kay, Boyle, Goudie (captain) and Fiddes.

All Honolulu—Goal, Duisenberg; backs, Beardmore and Soper; halfbacks, Parish, Irish and Churton; forwards, Beyer, Blackman, Morse (captain), Waterhouse and Simpson.

Mr. J. H. Catton refereed the game, and Messrs. Munro and Catterall officiated as line-men.

Following is the standing of the teams in the Association football league:

	Games	Won	Lost	Drawn	Goals For	Goals Against	Pts.
Honolulu	9	0	0	0	2	1	4
Maile Ilmas	2	0	0	1	1	1	1
Hackford-Davies	0	2	0	0	1	6	0
Wanderers	9	0	2	0	1	9	0

HEALANIS HOLD OPEN HOUSE

New Year's Function at the Boathouse Was a Great Success.

The Healan Boat and Yacht Club kept open house yesterday for about three hundred friends and members. From the expressions of pleasure heard on every side, this pleasant custom of a New Year's reception, inaugurated by the Healanis is a popular one; and yesterday's success will probably cause its repetition next year.

The reception began shortly after 1 o'clock, when the guests began streaming in in twos and fours, and finally in crowds. A bountiful lunch was served in the lower rooms under the direction of Steward Wyman of the Pacific Club. The guests were seated at small tables, and the edibles were placed on a long table, where there was no limit to the hospitality and good cheer so freely dispensed. The menu, while not elaborate, was bounteous, and served as only Mr. Wyman can serve. Sandwiches, salads, turkey and other meats, with dressing, were dispensed with lavish hands. Ices, assorted cakes, with olives, pickles and relishes, were also served.

In the ball room above the scene was one of much gaiety. A dance program of sixteen numbers was given, excellent music being furnished by the Lei Poi Mo'i orchestra. At times the floor was so crowded as to make dancing difficult, but the dancers were good natured and required something more than jostling and crowding to dampen their high spirits. The hall was prettily decorated with the club's colors, blue and white, gray streamers adding to its effectiveness. The success of the function is due to the hard working house committee, which is composed of J. L. Conkling, Frank Woodbridge and J. D. Dougherty.

CHRISTMAS AT LIHUE.

Novel Features of a Holiday Entertainment at That Place.

A novel and very pleasant form of Christmas entertainment was given to the Lihue children and the public on Saturday evening, Dec. 21, at the court house, by Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Lydgate. It was an original Christmas comedy, entitled "Santa Claus at Home," in which a committee of the children interviewed Santa Claus with intent to secure his liberal attention. There was a Santa Claus house of generous proportions, with a chimney out of which Santa Claus appeared. There were dwarfs to do his bidding, witches, who refused to help him, and fairies more amenable. Mrs. Santa Claus, a scold, and little Johnny, a chip off the old block. It is needless to say that the visit of the committee was not in vain; the affair ended in a joyous delivery of presents, some 200 in number. Several keen local "hits" enhanced the interest for the grown people.

Read this statement made by a citizen:

Mrs. Grace Dodd of 524 Young street this city, informs us: "My suffering, were of a complicated nature; I had enlargement of the liver according to the doctors' diagnosis, and beside this was troubled with severe pains in the right side, and a lame back. I had these backache pains for two years, and so severe were they at times that they prevented me from sleeping. All the medicines I tried were of no avail until I got some of Doan's Backache Kidney Pills at the Hollister Drug Co.'s store, and used them. The benefit obtained was wonderful; the backache was entirely relieved and cannot be too grateful for this since now enjoy good sleep—one of the chief of Nature's blessings."

Rebekah's Dance.

Amid the strains of dance music the Olive Branch Rebekahs and their guests saw the old year fade away and new one come into existence Tuesday night at Progress hall. The hall was crowded with a prettily dressed body of young women and by 9 o'clock there was not even room for one more. The decorations were American and Hawaiian flags trimmed with pink and green, the lodge colors. Refreshments of lemonade, ice cream and cake were served toward midnight.
